—Editor Stewart, of Speareville, was a caller Monday.

—Miss Sadie Morrison, of Ford, is attending school in this city.

—Complete returns of the late election may be found in this issue.

—Read the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN and keep posted on current events.

—J. W. Gilbert made a business trip to Kansas City Friday morning.

—Let us have the stock and crop news items from the country for publication.

—The weather is very unsettled, and just now winter seems to have the best of it.

—Remember the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN has been reduced in price to $1.50 per year.

—Dr. D. D. Rose has moved his office from the Warren building to room four, Bee Hive building.

—D. M. Frost went to Garden City Monday night to enter upon his duties as register of the land office.

—Hon. Willis G. Emerson, of Meade Center, addressed the citizens of Ford on the question of "Sugar" Monday.

—Mr. Robert McCause, of Kinsley, Kansas, was in the city on Monday looking up a real estate deal that he had on hand.

—Mr. Dorsett and wife, of Speareville, who have been visiting with Mr. J. W. Gilbert and family, returned home Friday afternoon.

—If any reader fails to receive a copy of the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN after this issue, they may consider that their name has been dropped from the list.

—Eugene D. Morse, Houston, Texas, has had his name placed on our books, and will be a regular reader of the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN for sixteen months.

—H. S. Wilkinson, the grocer, has issued a circular to his patrons informing them that he has concluded to continue in business in Dodge City. Glad to hear it.

—Dr. C. A. Milton accompanied D. M. Frost to Garden City Monday night where he saw our honored citizen installed in to the position of register of the Garden City land district.

—Superintendent G. V. Bartlett, of the state forestry station in this county, informs us that he will have 2,000,000 trees for spring delivery. Who says we can't raise trees in western Kansas?

—Mrs. W. P. Williams and children will leave during the week for Marshall, Mo., where they will join husband and father. Mr. Williams is employed as cashier in the Marshall bank.

—C. M. Beeson returned Saturday from his ranch in the Neutral Strip. He informs us that owing to the stormy weather he did not make his shipment, but will return again for that purpose in a few days.

—Rev. Wright, of the Presbyterian church, commenced a series of sermons to young ladies Sunday evening. He has just concluded a series of sermons to young men and we are glad to know he will not forget the ladies.

—In this issue appears a communication on the sugar industry, which should be carefully read by all citizens of the county. If anyone thinks the correspondent has misstated facts they are at liberty to correct them over their signatures. It is a great question, and should be fully discussed.

—We are glad to learn that Michael Sughrue was elected sheriff of Clark county. Mike held this office for two terms and after being out of office two years the people again honor him. He was formerly a resident of this county and is a twin brother of our F. F. Sughrue, who held a like position in this county at the same time his brother was sheriff of Clark county. Both are strong republicans.

—Rev. J. M. Wright commenced a series of sermons to young ladies last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church, and judging by the first they are well worth hearing and reflecting upon, not only by young ladies but by everybody else. The second one of the course will be delivered next Sunday evening, to which all are earnestly invited. The themes of the four sermons which compose the course are as follows: First "What Christianity has done for Women;" second, "The education of Women;" third, "The Moral power of Women;" fourth, "Woman in the Home."

—Home made mince meat at the Delmonico. Try it and you will say it is the finest you ever eat, 12 1-2 cents per pound.

—A. J. Clark, of Montezuma, was in town Monday.

—The cold wave flag was hoisted Monday, for the first time this season.

—Regular services at the Episcopal Mission next Sunday morning and evening.

—Dr. O. H. Simpson raked in a few stray antelope and jack rabbits the first of the week.

—Dr. J. W. Wade has been under the weather for a week, but is able to be about again.

—James R. Judd, Dodge City, is among those who were granted a pension the first of this week.

—J. F. Frankey and L. K. Soper returned home from Topeka, where they argued a case in the supreme court.

—2.88 inches of rain fall is what Sergeant T. W. Sherwood reports for October from the signal station in this city.

—A slight change appears in the Rock Island time card this week. Remember the railroad time cards in the GLOBE are absolutely correct.

—Some person left a pair of rabbit ears at our office during the week; make yourself known and receive thanks, for they have been a mascot to us.

—"Keep it Dark" done a good business at Kelly's opera house Friday night. Everybody was there, and for that reason any criticism would be superfluous.

—Our old friend Prof. John Groendyke, principal of the Bunker Hill, Kansas, public schools, has ordered the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN to be sent to his address for one year.

—E. W. Marvin, an engineer on the Rock Island road, has been transferred to the run from Pratt east, for ten days past. Next week he will again take his regular run from this city to Liberal, via Bucklin.

—Capt. W. H. Strickler was in town Monday to have a very sore hand treated. The colt wanted out, and the captain was bound he should remain in the stable; a wrestle ensued in which the colt was downed, and the captain is now nursing a badly sprained wrist.

—The semi-annual session of the Southwest Kansas Teachers' Association which meets in this city, commencing November 28th, will bring many teachers to this city. It is the custom in towns where these meetings are held for the citizens to supply entertainment, and we trust our good people will bestow such hospitality upon the visitors as will make them feel perfectly comfortable and at home. The session is open to all, and a very entertaining and instructive programme has been prepared.

—To the opera house management be all honor and glory. For weeks past we have spoken to them rather plainly concerning the noisy crowds that are permitted to loiter in the hallway and back part of the house, and insisted, for the comfort of the audience, that this should be stopped. Their efforts to this end have had a wonderful effect, and the order maintained at the several plays last week was all that could be reasonably expected. We are glad to make this favorable mention and trust that in the future we may never have occasion to complain again.

—Rev. J. M. Wright, of the Presbyterian church of this place, was called to Garden City Monday, November 11th, to officiate at a wedding, the contracting parties being Mr. Harry R. Boyd, a prosperous young attorney of that place, and Miss Margaret E. Baird, also of Garden City. The affair was one of unusual brilliancy. About forty invited guests witnessed the ceremony, which, by the way, was to some extent original with Rev. Wright, and received many compliments. The couple left for a two weeks trip to Chicago, on the morning train on which Mr. Wright returned.

—J. A. Ligon, soliciting agent for the live stock and commission firm of Irwin, Allen & Co., of Kansas City, dropped into our office last Thursday morning to inform us that he was still in existence. We had thought that J. A. had passed over to the silent majority, when he fell out of the second story window at Kansas City about a year or so ago and reported so badly injured that he could not live. He is up and about again, limping a little of course, but soliciting cattle shipments for the same old firm that he has been with for fifteen years. We were more than delighted to meet him.

—Last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings Newton Beers presented to only a fair audience the beautiful and realistic play, "Enoch Arden." The scene and lines throughout the play were those of the author, and any person who has read the famous poem of Tennyson's could clearly follow the actors from beginning to end. Considering the size of the stage and the many disadvantages usually encountered in the smaller opera houses, the tableaux and scenic effects were far grander than any we have ever seen in this city. As a rule Dodge City theatre goers know which plays are worthy of patronage and which are not, but they certainly lacked in good taste and judgment if they remained away from "Enoch Arden" because they thought it would be only something ordinary.

MUSICAL.

Mrs. J. W. Gilbert Entertains Friends at her Residence.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Thursday evening, a very large company assembled at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilbert to partake of their hospitality. Early in the evening the weather had changed from rain to snow; every hour the storm grew fiercer, and when seven o'clock arrived, had assumed the nature of a blizzard, and it was apparent that no human being could venture out to Gilbert Heights, and many hearts were sorely disappointed. While people were thus soliloquizing, Mr. Gilbert was not sitting idly by his fireside, thinking whether or not his friends would venture out, but summoned unto himself his servant, mounted, and commanded him to

"Go, breathe it in the ear

Of them that fear,

And bid them 'Be of good cheer!'"

"Also tell them that I have arranged for the buses to call at their homes." And so it was that this merry company found themselves at his cheerful fireside Thursday evening. The spacious parlors were thrown into one large auditorium, comfortably seating the entire company, when the following delightful musical programme was rendered:

QUARTETTE—"Legends,".....Mohring
Mrs. Gilbert, Miss Whitelaw, Miss Sheldon,
Miss Clark.

VIOLIN—"Fantaisie," Op. 117. (William Tell.)
Mr. Todd.

VOCAL—"Across the Sands,".....Millard
Mr. Lauber.

PIANO—"Titanic,".....Wely
Mrs. Churchill.

VOCAL DUET—"Say once again I love thee."
(Don Pasquale).....Donizetti
Mrs. Gilbert and Dr. Wade.

VIOLIN-Selection.....Mr. Hard
VOCAL—"My Lover is a Sailor Lad," Schellfarth
Miss Whitelaw.

PIANO—"Norwegian Bridal Party,".....Greig
Miss Clark.

VOCAL—"Anchored,".....Watson
Mr. Pearce.

PIANO—"Rigoletto,".....Liszt
Mrs. Martin.

VOCAL—"Darling,".....Millard
Mrs. Gilbert.

PIANO—(a) Sonata, Op. 31,.....Beethoven
(b) "Whispering Wind," Wollenhaupt
Miss Sheldon.

In the absence of Mrs. J. H. Churchill Mrs. W. W. Munsell supplied the number, playing a very pleasing selection entitled "Songs without words." The programme was an unusually interesting one, profuse with sparkling vocal and instrumental gems, and was warmly applauded from beginning to end. The female quartette was a new feature and a very acceptable one, too. Mr. Hard and Dr. Wade were absent, and their numbers were not supplied.

After the musical refreshments were served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in social chat. These gatherings are very entertaining and at the same time instructive to those who participate. This is the first of a series of musicales to be given during the winter.

Among those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Munsell, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Milton, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beverley, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. M. Wenie, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsett, of Speareville; Misses Lillie Williams, Amanda Boorey, Anna Reed, Minnie and Nina Sheldon, Bessie Whitelaw, Mary Clark, Ella Fitzgerald, May Beverley, Bessie Kellogg, Emily Cherington, Carrie Markley; Messrs. W. E. Teare, O. H. Simpson, W. H. Pearce, Mac S. Todd, John Stewart, L. A. Lauber, P. H. Young, S. H. Fields, Chas. Laing, W. T. Coolidge, E. T. Thome, W. W. Simpson, Frank Only.

—The peculiarly sad plaintiveness and pathos of most of Capt. W. Houston Strickler's writings command, and will bring out a responsive echo and sympathetic throb, wherever they may appear; for they certainly are distinctive surprises from what would be expected to emanate from one who has lived so long as he, isolated upon the western plains. His writings are replete with the finest sentiments, beautifully expressed, and all adapted to be set to music.

—Snow blockades in Colorado, between La Junta and Denver, have made the Santa Fe trains late for several days past. To-day's trains have not arrived up to four o'clock this afternoon, and No. 2, due here at 2:10 p. m., has not yet reached La Junta. A train was made up here this afternoon and sent east.

—We had just 216 visitors to-day who came around and gave us the hand-shake of prosperity. Call again.

—Young physicians are often angry. At least, they are sometimes found out of patients.

—Late yesterday afternoon President Harrison signed and issued the proclamation admitting Washington territory into the union as a state.

Ignatius Donnelly should take warning. The Shakespeare club of Cottonwood Falls, has decided the controversy over the authorship of Shakespeare's plays, and its decision is that Bacon had nothing whatever to do with them.—Atchison Champion.

The New Soldiers' Home.

The commissioners of the state soldiers' home located at Fort Dodge were in the city on last Friday and paid a visit to this new institution for the state. They found everything in excellent shape. The five officers' quarters which the commissioners ordered renovated and thoroughly repaired were carefully inspected and found in good condition and ready for the reception of the old soldiers who are soon to occupy them. The commissioners will, of necessity, have to use the greatest economy in opening up and in the subsequent management of the Home, as the appropriation is limited. The expense thus far incurred to the state in repairing the buildings is about $3,000. Ample quarters for at least one hundred inmates are now ready, but owing to the small amount of money appropriated by the state less than fifty soldiers can be admitted and maintained the first year. The commissioners will have another meeting soon, to be held at the state capital, when a system of rules and regulations for the management of the home will be formulated and adopted and a time named when inmates will be received, which will probably be on or about January 1st, 1890. The commissioners are Judge J. D. Barker, of Girard; Hon. Ira F. Collins, of Sabetha; and Capt. Henry Booth, of Larned. Judge Barker is president, and Capt. Booth secretary of the board.

Gilmore's Band Coming.

Gilmore's great band, of New York, will soon be here, with many additional vocal and jubilee features, such as anvils, and artillery, for a regular Gilmore jubilee.

The columns which the newspapers of the cities already visited are devoting to praising the glories and magnificence of Gilmore and his band of artists, are about the strongest musical articles which could possibly be written; still, they all confess their inability to do the subject full justice. It is simply beyond description, and a treat is in store for Dodge City which cannot be very accurately pictured by pen.

There is mummy who are kut out for smart men, but who won't pay for making up.—Josh Billings.
